Dear Kieran

Thank you for your email dated 16 February addressed to Elaine Finlay.

The concerns of the residents are noted.

Our client wishes to pursue the application as submitted and as varied following agreement on conditions with the Trading Standards Officer.

Our client does have a great deal of experience in operating 24 hour licensed sites and does not believe that the residents' concerns will materialise. Our client will monitor any night time use of the premises and will also be receptive to feedback from neighbours.

Kind regards

Robert
