3. Making your complaint

Please explain in this section what the Councillor has done that you believe breaches the Code of Conduct. If you are complaining about more than one Councillor you should clearly explain what each individual person has done that you believe breaches the Code of Conduct.

It is important that you provide all of the information you wish to have taken into account.

Complaints about the Conduct of Councillors in Milton Keynes

For example:

- You should be specific, wherever possible, about exactly what you are alleging that the Councillor said or did. For instance, instead of writing that a Councillor insulted you, you should state what it was they said.
- You should provide the dates of the alleged incidents wherever possible. If you cannot provide exact dates it is important to give a general timeframe.
- You should confirm whether there are any witnesses to the alleged conduct and provide their names and contact details if possible.
- You should provide any relevant background information.

Please provide us with the name of the Councillor(s) you believe have breached the Code of Conduct and the name of their authority: - First Entry

4. Informal Resolution

It is often preferable to resolve complaints without recourse to formal investigation and hearing and it is very important that all such options are explored prior to formal determination, such as mediation, explanation or an apology.

What steps you would feel could bring about that resolution of your complaint?

Please note that if no attempt is made at informal resolution the Sub-Committee may take this into account when determining your complaint.

Please provide us with details of what remedy you are seeking/what action you think might provide a satisfactory resolution to your complaint:

	Comment already deleted and a public apology made.
