	3. That an advert be placed in the local newspaper under Section 70 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 proposing a new private hire vehicle licence fee of £288 and a renewal private hire vehicle licence fee of £283. Each fee has increased by £7.00 to cover the cost of two new vehicle doors signs per year. An optional charge of £3.50 per door sign will also be advertised should a licence holder request a replacement sign. 4. That, following consideration of any objections, Cabinet approve the new fees and charges and recommend the Council’s Taxi Policy be amended to state the following: 1.4.1 Vehicle licence holders and drivers must display Council supplied private hire door signage. The signage will state: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● the Council’s logo; ● it is a licensed private hire vehicle; ● if the vehicle is not pre-booked it is not insured (Advanced Booking Only); and ● Council complaint/contact information. 1.4.2 Private hire operators may, in addition to Council approved door signage, display their own door signs. The door signs must be approved by the Council and meet the guidelines and procedures set out by the Regulatory Committee in the Hackney Carriage and Private Hire Licensing Procedures and Conditions (Part 2) document.		Taxi Licensing Lead
